Re: United States v. Anthony Lloyd
Docket No. 22 Mag. 4967

Dear Judge Wang:

On March 30, 2023, Magistrate Judge Robert Lehrburger granted defendant Anthony Lloyd's request to modify his bail conditions to facilitate his enrollment in an inpatient drug treatment program. Specifically, the defendant's location monitoring and curfew conditions were removed for the duration of the program.

Pretrial Services has confirmed that the defendant has successfully completed the program and is scheduled to be released from inpatient care today. Accordingly, with the consent of the defendant's Pretrial Services officer and defense counsel, the Government requests that the Court order the reimposition of the defendant's original location monitoring and curfew conditions, with the defendant to contact Pretrial Services upon his release to coordinate the installation of any equipment.
